

Jeff Civillico

Jeff Civillico is a Las Vegas Headliner, TV & Live Event Host Personality, and Philanthropist.

At the end of 2019, Jeff celebrated a 10-year run on the Strip as a Headliner with Caesars Entertainment at the iconic Las Vegas hotel properties The LINQ, The Flamingo, and The Paris. His “Comedy in Action” show is highly acclaimed, with an impressive list of accolades that includes “Best of Las Vegas” 3 years in a row by the Las Vegas Review Journal, “Entertainer of the Year” by Vegas Inc, and “Top 10 Things To Do In Vegas” by Total Vegas Guide. His show maintains a 5-star rating on Ticketmaster, Yelp, and Google.

Jeff is also the Founder and Chairman of Win-Win Entertainment, a national non-profit that creates opportunities for professional entertainers, athletes and celebrities to share their time and talent with children in need. Win-Win Entertainment has touched over 65,000 lives to date, sending talent to multiple hospitals and foster homes every week across 7 cities, with plans for continued national expansion. Jeff serves on the board of several organizations in addition to Win-Win Entertainment including his alma mater Georgetown University, Las Vegas Academy of the Arts high school, Nevada Medical Center, and The Greater Good Council of Las Vegas.